WINDSOR - Canada's Ambassador City

SOUTH OF THE BORDER

Metropolitan Windsor, Ontario, population 211,037, is Canada's largest city on the U.S.-Canada border. It is situated on the Detroit River, one of the world's busiest waterways. During the 1966 season (263) days, vessel passages in both directions on this river totalled 16,056 (exclusive of passenger and sand boats) — an average of 61 per day, or one vessel every 24 minutes, carrying a total of over 125 million net tons of cargo. On this great inland water route, a part of the Great Lakes System, ply ships as long as 730 feet, carrying finished products and raw materials (iron ore, coal, limestone, grain, etc.) to and from the markets of the world.

Geographically, Windsor is situated south of many parts of the United States. Between Detroit (metropolitan population 4,041,000) and Windsor there cross in both directions each year over 29 million persons 1966 — 29,964,093) of whom over six million (1966 6,319,489) are American visitors to Canada. Both communities are connected by railway tunnel, the Ambassador Bridge, the Detroit-Windsor vehicular tunnel and railway car ferries.

FROM SKILLED HANDS

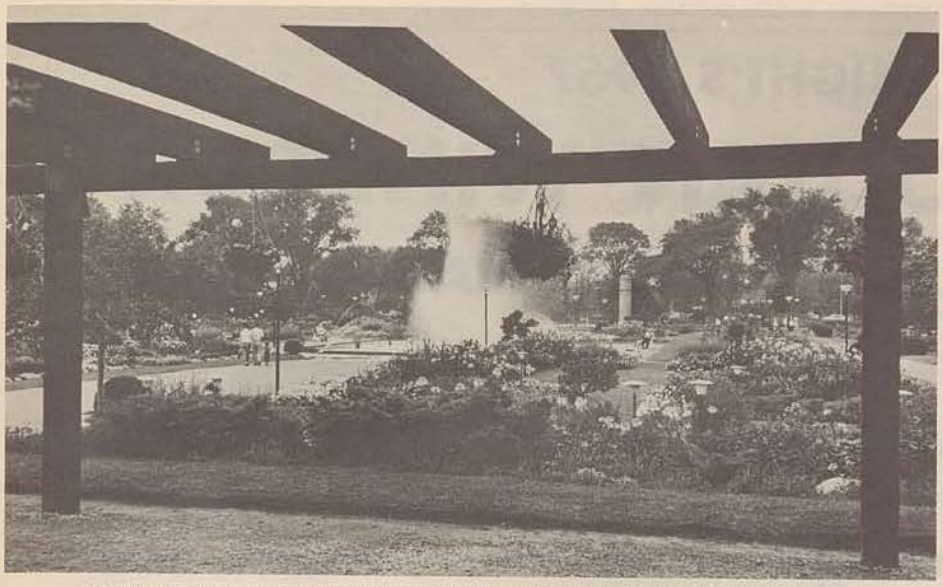
Although ninth (metropolitan is tenth) in population, Windsor is sixth on Canada's list of industrial centres and gaining ground steadily. Capital and repair expenditures for manufacturing in Windsor have been increasing: 1963 — $30.8 million, a figure which was more than doubled in 1964 — $71.9 million; 1965 — $83.9 million, second highest in the nation. In 1966, there has been a monthly average of 36,418 people employed in Windsor area manufacturing industry. The 1965 average annual taxable income for individual taxpayers in Windsor was $5,000 — third highest in Canada. Windsor, the "City of Firsts" was the first to inaugurate (1959) a standardized industrial apprenticeship programme sponsored by Windsor Chapter, Ontario Industrial Education Council. Windsor factories continue to add more value to manufactured goods, per employee, than their counterparts in other Canadian industrial centres (1962 — $14,321 latest figure available). Windsor's 490 industries produce a wide range of products. Well known for automobile manufacturing, Windsor produces Chrysler automobiles; Ford engines and parts; McKinnon Industries — General Motors standard and automatic transmissions; Kaiser Jeep vehicles; General Motors automotive trim, etc. Other nationally-advertised products from Windsor are: Anacin, Burroughs Machines, "Windsor Salt" (rock salt mines here produce more salt than all other Canadian salt works and salt mines combined), Tums, Toledo Scales, Hiram Walker's "Canadian Club", Champion Spark Plugs, Bicycle Playing Cards, Green Giant (canned vegetables and the largest sweet corn processors in Canada), Carling's Black Label, Dragon Brand Frozen Foods, and many, many more. In 1965, 28 new industries located here, 31 new plants were built and there were 51 plant expansions included among 857,000 square feet of new industrial space constructed during the year. Over a ten-year period (1956-1965) there has been an average industrial growth of 8.8 acres per year of factory space for new plants and expansions. This is a total, for the period, of 85 new plants and 393 expansions. An annual average of 537 new single and 342 multiple dwellings were built in the area from 1961 to 1965.

FROM HERE TO EVERYWHERE

This area is well served by five main railways and one terminal line; a transcontinental air line (Air Canada); an international air line (Canadian Pacific Air Lines Limited: South America-Mexico-Windsor to Madrid and Rome); chartered flights, and highway transport facilities. An extensive expansion programme has been completed at the Windsor Airport ($1 million new terminal building, $1,340,000 in runways). Additional runways are planned for the near future to accommodate enlarged service. Windsor, too, is determined to realize every advantage of the St. Lawrence Seaway for its port which now provides Great Lakes transportation. Windsor port facilities are being improved and expanded. In 1966, total gross cargo tonnage, in and out of the harbour, amounted to 10,574,921 gross tons.

DESIGN FOR BETTER LIVING

The Windsor area maintains its brisk pace with the amazing growth of Canada. The City has expanded since the end of World War II under a zoning system to protect the stability of residential, commercial and industrial properties. As of January 1, 1959, Windsor inaugurated the Council-Manager plan of municipal government. In co-operation with Canada's programme of pollution abatement, a second sewage treatment plant is being constructed on the city's west side which, together with the first plant recently completed on the east side, will service the entire area. Annexation of surrounding townships took place in January, 1966. Now the city covers 30,000 acres. The community is constantly developing a programme of progressive capital expenditures on a period basis. Current 1966-1970 capital works programme is $52,054,000 of which only $33,671,112 will be debentured. While all recent improvements to end of 1965 involve an outstanding debenture debt of $30,623,762, Windsor has one of the lowest ($164.68) per capita gross debenture debt among Canadian cities.



Windsor's programme of redevelopment and beautification, launched in 1956, triggered immense private and public interest and investment here. Throughout the city, private enterprise is constructing office buildings, shopping plazas, apartment complexes.

This is the same programme responsible for today's very attractive Civic Centre, formed around a nucleus which began with the Municipal Courts Building (1963) and the Ontario Tourist Centre (downtown) (1963). In this vicinity, also two major projects — a department store complex and a high-rise luxury apartment were completed early in 1967. A six-storey, 599-space municipal parking garage, in this same area, was opened in December 1965.

Only the initial stages of Windsor's comprehensive waterfront development have been completed: the Cleary Auditorium and Memorial Convention Hall (1960), Dieppe Gardens (1960) and the Hiram Walker Historical Museum (1958). Recently, a proposal was accepted for the construction of a 231-unit motel complex near the convention hall. Centennial Park, west of the proposed complex, will be completed mid 1967 and is a part of riverfront beautification which is to continue through to Huron Line. Another hotel complex and a recent major expansion at a motor hotel (both on Ouellette Avenue) will double Windsor's excellent convention facilities in 1967.

EDUCATION – GATEWAY TO PROGRESS

Metropolitan Windsor has excellent facilities for education of its 58,861 day students (1966 – 108 primary schools; 15 secondary schools, including two junior vocational schools); University of Windsor with Holy Redeemer, Canterbury and Iona Colleges as affiliates, and Assumption University of Windsor federated within the new University; Western Ontario Institute of Technology (1958); and the Windsor Teachers College (1962). A college of Applied Arts and Technology is designated for this area. Windsor is the first city in Ontario to have "language lab" courses in elementary and secondary schools..

Opportunities for all types of recreation are available here and for restoration and protection of health (5 hospitals, the Essex County Sanatorium, Victorian Order of Nurses and Red Cross Units). All the basic, voluntary, health, welfare and social agencies (20) are supported financially by the United Community Services of Greater Windsor established, originally, in 1947.

An important programme for additional educational and hospital facilities, involving millions of dollars, is underway.

"AND PURE RELIGION BREATHING HOUSEHOLD LAWS"

There are approximately 161 churches and four synagogues in the Windsor area, embracing a wide group of religious affiliations.

PIONEERING IN MEDICINE – SOCIOLOGY – WELFARE

In the field of sociology, health and general welfare, Windsor has given a generous share of leadership. In 1949, Windsor established the first Child Guidance Clinic in Canada. In 1919 there was established in the Windsor area, the first amalgamated health unit in Canada comprising six communities. A larger unit for the entire county area (excepting Pelee Island) came into operation July 1, 1964. Windsor Medical Services, Inc. is the first doctor-sponsored, prepaid community medical plan in Canada. Prescription Services, Inc. (Windsor) is the first prepaid, voluntary medical prescription service in existence. The Windsor Cancer Clinic, opened in 1935, is one of the original cancer clinics sponsored by the Ontario Government. Windsor is one of the first four Ontario communities to establish (1954) homes for senior citizens. At present there are 108 units for couples and 108 units for individuals and 212 units will be erected in the downtown area in the near future. In 1955, the first community co-ordinating centre for rehabilitation services in Ontario was established here. Windsor is among the first to have a Senior Citizens' Centre. Windsor's million dollar Huron Lodge, one of the finest homes for the aged in Canada (150-bed capacity), was completed in 1961.

A FREE PRESS – BASTION OF DEMOCRACY

Windsor and Essex County (total population 281,000) enjoy the news services of an outstanding Canadian daily newspaper – The Windsor Star (winner John A. MacLaren Newspaper Award in 1965), circulation 82,385; ten weekly newspapers; Radio Stations CBE (1550), CKWW (580), CJSP (710) Leamington, CKLW (800) and CKLW-TV (9) one of the most powerful (325,000 watts) television stations on the North American continent.

DRIVE SAFELY – THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN

In spite of an increasing volume of traffic, Windsor's record compares favourably with traffic records of communities of similar size. Traffic accidents totalled 5,207 and 33 fatalities in 1966. Area automobiles registrations for 1966 totalled 76,739. Besides this traffic during the past year, 3,876,372 U.S. automobiles entered Canada at this point. Progressive traffic changes and off-street parking facilities are being constantly studied and improved.

SUNSHINE AND MELLOW FRUITFULNESS

Windsor's industry is well balanced with a prosperous agricultural community in Essex County, well known as the "Sun Parlour of Canada" where there are produced 33 different fruit and vegetable crops. Because of a favourable climate (average winter high 33, low 20; summer high 79, low 62) fertile soil and a long growing season from average of 208 days in northern section to 216 days in the south, with average of 165 frost-free days, the county produces fruit (peaches, pears, apples, cherries) and vegetables which reach market one to five weeks earlier than any other area in Canada: corn, soy beans, wheat, oats, tobacco, sweet potatoes, asparagus. Farms here have a higher per capita production than anywhere else in Canada. 51% of total Ontario production of field crop tomatoes for canning are grown in Essex County. Essex County holds second place in the province in acreage devoted to fruit trees with peach and dwarf apple trees showing consistent gain. 1966 figures set a value of approximately $7,727,559 on livestock and poultry in Essex County. There are nearly 300 acres of land under glass in the Sun Parlour of Canada – nearly half of the greenhouse area in Canada. These greenhouses produce more than $6½ million worth of cucumbers and tomatoes annually. Floricultural products are becoming increasingly important. Yoder-Atkin Limited, nationally recognized propagators of floricultural material, and Noweta Flowers Limited, the largest (105 acres) gladiolus bulb supplier in Canada, are located in Leamington, which is also the home of the world's largest tomato processing plant, operated by the H. J. Heinz Company of Canada Limited.
